

A2014.003.0560 – Bruce A. Krug, Lindsay Township Scrapbook Index

---

Notes

- Press CTRL-F to search
- "Ms." refers to a handwritten document or manuscript
- Index consists of year, and key words and phrases taken from the clippings or describing the historical notes / interviews
- Scrapbooks contain newspaper clippings, interspersed with manuscript interviews. There are the occasional b/w photos (original prints).
- Page numbers were added by Archives.
- Indexed by Volunteer Robin Hilborn, 2015

Lindsay Township Scrapbook Index

Page	Description
1	Ms., 2 pp. Letter, from Peggy Clarke, Toronto, to Howard and Bruce [Krug], Mar. 20, 1964. Invitation to visit them at the cottage. Map showing the Clarke Castle on Deadman's Point.
3	1963 "Tenders wanted". S.S. No. 3 Cape Chin school, 22x30; Lindsay Township School Board.
5	1961 Death of Rev. Canon Robert W. James, Trinity Anglican Church, Port Burwell. In The Bruce Beckons as the "sky pilot of the Bruce Peninsula". 21 years in the Bruce.
7	1964 "Heroic rescue of barge's crew had a not-so-heroic sequel", by Fred Landon. Loss of Africa , October 1895; Severn . Bradley made survivors pay for food and drink. Photo of steam barge Africa , built at Kingston in 1872.
9	Ms., 2 pp., enclosing three photographs for copying. Letter, from Hilda [Downey], Tiverton, Ont., to Bruce [Krug], Jan. 4, 1964. Re Bruce's friend who will make copies of old photographs for the Society. "These three pictures arrived yesterday from Mrs. Isabel Greenop of Sarnia, a Society member. They belong to a cousin of hers who was a Tackaberry of Dyer's Bay. ... Two are of log schools & pupils in Lindsay Tp. ... The third one is of the John Tackaberry log house at Dyer's Bay. I don't know the year but it could be established quite easily. There are eleven people in the picture, including one very small girl who now owns the picture. She must be over 70 years of age." [10] 1858: wreck of schooner Wave at Inverhuron, two drowned. 1857 gale wrecked schooner Wilson at Stoney Island; Forest ran ashore near Inverhuron; Resolution went down near Inverhuron. The author speaks of a Family History Competition, and Bill Walsh. "Mrs. Charlotte Jack of Port Elgin has several black & white sketches of people done by David Brown Milne".

- 11 Three b/w photos, 8x10 inches, copied from originals. (1) Log schoolhouse with class in front. Verso: "Lindsay Township – Brinkman's Corner". List of names, ending in "Rev. Hursey". "G. Williscroft, Photo Artist". (2) Corner of log building with four rows of students; possibly they have been asked not to smile. Verso: "Lindsay Township – Brinkman's Corner". List of names, ending in "Olive Watson". Included is "Margaret Tackaberry (myself)". (3) Log house with women in front and two horses and a wagon. Verso: "This picture has faded badly and it may not be much good to you. It is my Birth Place at Dyer's Bay, Lindsay Township. There is a different house & barn there now. My sister and I are in the waggon with the hired man. My mother is Mrs. John Tackaberry; Mrs. Lilly Bryan; Mary Ann Tyndall (my aunt); Mrs. Albert Dienham; Mrs. Bailey; Mrs. Thomas Tyndall (my grandmother); Mrs. Tomza Bryan. My mother had these Ladies at a quilting bee. This would be taken about 68 years ago (1875)."
- 17 B/w photo, original print. Date "JUN 56". Annotation: "Log house on Greenfield Ranch, south of Spring Creek".
- 19 1958 "Body believed that of missing Michigan man". Harry Fernette, 52, of East Tawa, Mich.; fell of dock at Alabaster, Mich.
- 19 1958 "Lost 18 months – identify body found on Lake Huron shore". Drowned in November 1956, Harry Fernette, 52.
- 21 Ms., 1 p. Transcribed. "The Bryan Family", Wiarnton Canadian, Dec. 1898. "Mr. James Bryan and family are residents of the Dyers Bay Settlement, where they located in March 1894 ... from Port Elgin where Mr. Bryan was in the hotel business ..." 200 acres; now hold 1,300 acres. Six hours by horse to Lion's Head; now, two and a half hours. The settlement is making progress.
- 23 Ms., 3 pp. Transcribed. "Letter from [D.C.] Holmes to his nephew Ernie Holmes, October 1954". "Tyranite, Oct. 29/54. Dear Ernie, Your letter just arrived. I will try and answer some of your questions as far as I know. My grandad on my father's side was born in Buffalo, U.S. My father was born in Kincardine ... Holmesville between Kincardine and Goderich, or maybe below Goderich ..." In Southampton, Bill Johns bought the schooner Emma. Bill Johns was the first man to pilot the Lily Smith into Pine Tree harbour. Maternal ancestors of D.C. Holmes. From Pike Bay to Pinetree. Hiram Parker, cutting road from Spry to where Miller Lake School is. [24] To Southampton for supplies; stormstayed there. Uncle Robert. Mother washed and cooked for old Haggan. Aunt Jane. Mrs. Robbins. Mrs. Hatt. Mail at Stokes Bay. Judge or Bailey sawmill on south side of Pine Tree at the bottom of the bay. Keay. Sibert. McFarlane, Sadler. Father was head sawyer in Ager mill. Only families were Holmes, Haggan, Sadler, Steep, Brough, Weatherspoon. [25] Two miles to school.

- 27 19xx "Ex-Owen Sounder's story of experiences on the lakes". Africa, Severn story from W.A. Reid, Riverside CA. 1895 wreck, in Saturday Night and Sun-Times. His account. Tow line breaks, wound around propeller.
- 29 Ms., 4 pp. Transcribed. "When Africa and Severn were lost on Lake Huron". Lost in gale, October 1895. "From an old scrap book which was compiled years ago by E.G. Cross of Tavistock, former Warton newspaperman, is reproduced a story of the loss of two old lake boats in 1895 ... appeared in the Toronto Saturday Night ... the article is as follows." "Readers of 'Tales of the Georgian Bay' may have observed that ..." Foundered ten or 12 miles from Cove Island. Africa a passenger steamer, then rebuilt as a steam barge. "In 1881, when the writer saw her ..." Capt. Isaac May. Long account of the wreck.
- 33 Ms., 3 pp. Transcribed. "Recalls many changes on Bruce Peninsula since 1870", by Mrs. Louis Sutter of Pike Bay, first prize winner of pioneer story contest. "Having heard that you would like to receive pioneer stories of the early days on the Bruce Peninsula I thought perhaps my experiences would be of interest ... Having passed my 83rd birthday ... In the spring of 1870 my father Robert McMaster, with his wife and family of eight children, left Southampton in a little sail-boat named the Blackbird for our new home at Pike Bay ... bought it from a man by the name of Mr. Crow ... I was then fourteen years old ..." One other family then at Pike Bay, Kale. A little log house. Fire came down from Stokes Bay; moved possessions into the boat. [34] Salvaging barrels along the shore, from a shipwreck. "... up near Miller Lake, then called Pine Tree, where a lot of the flour came ashore; 30 barrels of good flour. Another fall, barrels of lard ashore, were gathered up by the families. [35] Frame house. Father died in 1889, mother 19 years later at 80. Youngest brother, George McMaster; youngest sister, Mrs. Jack Hilditch Sr. (of Mrs. Louis Sutter). Farm is at lots 2, 3, con 4 W.B.R. Post office at Mar. "Above made from a copy of material sent from Mrs. Robert Sutter, RR#1, Mar, Ontario, Jan. 14th, 1955".

- 37 Ms., 1 p. "Wreck of the steamship Eclipse". "In an interview with Jack Steep of Lion's Head on October 17, 1954, I asked how the point north of Pine Tree Harbour on the Lake Huron shore of Bruce Peninsula received its name of Deadman Point and this is what Jack Steep told me. 'Deadman point got its name from the fact that three men were buried there. The steamship Eclipse was wrecked directly off Pine Tree Harbour sometime before 1884 ..." John Holmes. Alex McFarlane. Bones visible. Reynard Whip of Gilpie / Gilphie which sailed from Southampton, dug up a skull, "hung it at the front of the cabin on his ship". Chairs, pillow with "Eclipse", at the Steep home.
- 39 Ms., 1 p. Transcribed. "November 1953. From Dr. Fox's book The Bruce Beckons, chapter 11 ..."; story of Steve Bradley and daughter Mag chasing away law with rattlesnakes. Mag Bradley is now Mrs. Maggie Penleton or Pendleton, lives near Glamis, Bruce County.
- 41 B/w photos, original prints, 3 pp.