Celebrating 65 Years of Exploring!

• A962.040.069 - John McBeath Teeswater general store interior

In the early days of settlement and development of Bruce County, general stores were at the heart of the community and a cause of celebration for early settlers who would no longer have to carry heavy sacks of flour long distances. Trading was another important function enabling farmers to sell products like eggs, butter and poultry in the Municipality of South Bruce
